The enemy withdrew in the direction of Paris.

LONDON, December 22.—The French claim to have several of Frederick Charles' communications, and to have captured 2,000 prisoners as the Prussians were leaving Tours. They also report the army of the Loire made a successful union, and is now 300,000 strong and ready for the offensive.
ANTWERP, December 23.—The Government gives notice of its inability to shelter more merchandise. The wharves are covered with goods suffering from exposure.
BORDEAUX, December 23.—The Mayor of Tours telegraphs, on the 22d, to the Department of the Interior, that the Prussians passed towards Blois without entering Tours. A telegram from Lyons, on the 22d, announced Gambetta's enthusiastic reception there. Official advice from Paris, on the night of the 21st, state that operations were renewed that day, and only closed at night. Generals Mabro and Blaise occupied Neufilly, San Marne Villa Emond and Mayson Blanche on the East. The fire of the enemy was silenced at all points. Also, state after a short combat, wherein Gen. Favre was wounded, the troops from St. Denis, under Admiral Larouciere, carried Bourget to the North of Paris, but were unable to hold the place. They retired with one hundred Prussian prisoners. Ducrot also fought South of the city, in a violent artillery action, against Mount Abol and Blanchesneul. At night, Ducrot occupied Groslay and Drangy. General Noel made a faint on the side of Mont Valerien against Montretout. The mobilized National Guard, who fought with the troops in these engagements, displayed great ardor. The garrison of St. Denis and the marines lost considerably in attacking Bourget. The losses of the other troops not heavy. Trochu remains outside the city with the army.

Several days ago, acting Attorney-General Bristow was consulted by a Louisiana Senator, and in response to inquiries, gave an informal opinion, but without thoroughly examining the question, that the withdrawal of a Presidential nomination to the Senate in the place of an officer suspended would, to a certain extent, confirm the suspension and release the bondsman of the person sought to be removed. Therefore, yesterday, after a brief discussion, the Senate declined compliance with the request of the President to withdraw the name of Blanchard, who was recently nominated for the office of postmaster at New Orleans, in place of Lowell, suspended, for the purpose of fixing a precedent, by the passage of a resolution that, under the tenure of office law, in case of the rejection of a nominee, the old incumbent remained, without filing new bonds, until a successor shall be appointed, by and with the consent of the Senate. It was thought the precedent could only be re-established in the manner herein stated, in the absence of any disrepute whatever to the President.

DuBose to Congress, and four-fifths of the members of the Legislature. It is believed the Democrats will elect all the County officers in Chatham and the members of the Legislature. Payne and McIntyre, Democrats, are probably elected to Congress from the First District, and Rufus E. Lester, Democrat, State Senator. The Democrats will carry Oglethorpe County by 300 and Floyd by 1,000 majority, electing a full ticket; also, Chattooga and Polk Counties. Cherokee, Georgia, will send a unanimous Democratic representation to the Legislature. P. M. B. Young is elected to Congress from the Seventh District by about 30,000 majority. Whitfield, Covington, Newton and Walton Counties are gone Democratic by large majorities. Columbus, Muscogee County, elects the entire Democratic ticket.
